Important Points/Reminders to Parents:

- Your team's coach has a difficult job requiring a personal commitment of time and effort.
- Your first point of contact regarding issues should always be your coach. The absolute worst time to approach a coach is immediately before or after a game. Please allow 24 hours to pass. The second worst time to approach a coach is during practice. Before or after may be permissible with advance notice. If you have an issue to discuss, call and ask for a meeting. No calls after 10PM. No nasty emails. Remember coaches have families and personal lives also.
- Refrain from addressing or commenting about all players and coaches during practices and games.
- Infractions and violations of the code of ethics/conduct above by any player or parent may result in a player and/or parent being prohibited from practice/s or game/s and/or removal of a player from the team.
- Respect a coach's decisions and authority.
- Report any abuse or impropriety.
- The existence and future of all programs is jeopardized by irresponsible behavior. Accidents, damage and/or vandalism sometimes occurs. Often these actions are the result of unsupervised children with access to facilities. The SPYB is not a babysitting service and locations used for games or practices are not playgrounds. Do not leave your children unsupervised.
- The SPYB provides access to gyms for participants and spectators, ONLY. Any other attendee or use is not welcome and will not be tolerated.
- Parents will be held directly responsible for any financial damages arising from unmonitored children. Violations may result including removal from the premises, banishment from the premises, and /or banishment from the SPYB.
- Please help maintain clean and safe bathrooms, hallways, and other areas. Please police activities and your surroundings, properly discard garbage and bottles, and help with set-up and break down of practices and games.

I have read, understand, and agree to this code of conduct as well as the "Important Points/Reminders" herein, both on behalf of my child and myself:
